ST HALLETT

The St Hallett story is rich with booms and near busts, dreamy visionaries and loyal workhorses, ingenuity and tradition. Throughout the 70 year odyssey there have been a few unerring constants: an absolute dedication to the Barossa; a love of Shiraz; and a promise to ‘do it once, do it right’.

St Hallett has been producing fine wines since it was established in 1944. All of the fruit used in every bottle of St Hallett wine is grown, made and matured in the Barossa with some of the fruit coming from some of the oldest vineyards in the world.

St Hallett Old Block Shiraz 2009, James Halliday 96 Points

An acknowledged icon of the Barossa, St Hallett Old Block is an elegant and seamless Shiraz. Derived from old vine Shiraz of 80 to 120 years of age, it is widely recognised as world class. A wine to cellar and savour.

Lifted floral spice of early-picked blackberry. The nose indicates the textural layering present on the palate. Palate: Restrained power and opulence present from the rich fruit of blackberry and cherry married to the subtle hints of cocoa and cinnamon. The textured layering of fine-grained tannins from carefully selected French oak, are wonderfully suited to the vibrancy of this wine, which finishes with a lingering velvet softness.

St Hallett Blackwell Shiraz

“An opulent Barossa Shiraz. It cries out for a juicy steak - do yourself a favour.” - Stuart, St Hallett winemaker since 1972.

As St Hallett’s reserve Shiraz, Blackwell is big and bold. It exudes all the power and brooding density that the Barossa has to offer. It’s all about optimum power and concentration of fruit flavour.
