

NATGEO WHEELLOCK YOUTH PHOTO COMPETITION 2017 WINNERS' EXHIBITION

A picture is worth a thousand words. Born from a partnership between National Geographic and Wheelock Properties, the competition with the theme of “Hong Kong Reminiscence : Places, People and Happenings.” offered a platform for a new generation of photographers to showcase their awe-inspiring work. The winning photographs were exhibited in Jockey Club Ti-I College from mid-April to early May, to present the talent of young photographers and new perspectives of Hong Kong community through the art of photography.

